

CFR LIBRARY SERVICES

- i. Provides current awareness on available resources to potential users and immediate accessibility to library collections.
- ii. Ensures that its resources stay innovative, varied in breadth and type, open to access, and of high quality.
- iii. Preserves different information resources, and maintains an excellent storage and retrieval system for the purpose of serving prospective library users.
- iv. Responds to the changing needs of library users so as to deepen the library best practice and to increase the ways in which clients can pursue inquiry.
- v. To provide wide-ranging resources and services that support learning, teaching, and research requirements of the CFR Centers' community.